

Top Republican Adviser Ron Kaufman Credits President Obama with Driving Voters to the Republican Party

Making a return appearance on "Truth for America" was Ron Kaufman, who has served as an advisor over the last 25 years to Republican Presidents, Governors, Members of Congress and a host of elected and appointed officials at every level of government and today is affiliated with Dutko Worldwide.

"If you're a Republican activist and you aren't happy with the election trends we are seeing, you should shoot yourself," said

Kaufman. He predicts that the Republicans will pick up 45-50 House seats, 7-8 Senate seats, and 30 new governorships. unpoplar programs that are driving voters to the Republican Party," concluded Kaufman.

Kaufman is particularly excited about the projected Republican governorships because they will play a large role in the 2012 elections – especially in the Midwest industrial belt. "Neal Asbury's Truth for America" tackles free trade and enterprise issues every Friday from 5:00 PM until 6:00 PM on WZAB-AM 880 and is co-hosted by Richard Roffman, a veteran 30-year publisher with extensive domestic and international experience. The show is streamed live on line at

A big supporter of Mitt Romney, Kaufman said that after completing a book tour, Romney is devoting his time helping Republican candidates raise money and by making personal appearances. Kaufman believes that these "favors" will come in handy if Romney makes a Presidential bid in 2012.
